Love God, Love your neighbour

When you look at the Catechism of the Catholic Church, and see its 691 pages, or look at the 2,000 pages of the big Jerusalem Bible, you can be forgiven for thinking that Christianity is a complicated affair. But Jesus reminds us today that it is essentially very simple: everything can be summed up in two basic rules: love God, love your neighbour. Exodus backs this up, by talking about the simple love that we must show to each other. Not that this is easy - love is always costly, and involves some degree of sacrifice. We will have to change, to become perfect in love; but it is possible, and when we do we become a great example to people everywhere.

World Missions Sunday

Please pray for the work of Missio. To continue supporting Missio throughout the year please go to: missio.org.uk or call 020 7821 9755.

Into your hands, Lord...

Please pray for the repose of the souls of Pam Rockey and Diarmid McMahan who have died recently. May they rest in peace.

You are not making a gift of what is yours to the poor man, but you are giving him back what is his. You have been appropriating things that are meant to be for the common use of everyone. The earth belongs to everyone, not to the rich. (St Ambrose)

During the month of November, we will focus on the theme of 'Living in solidarity with the poor'. On Sunday, 19 November, we will join other Catholic communities around the world in celebrating the first World Day of the Poor as declared by Pope Francis. We will reflect on what is already being done in our parish to support those who are marginalised and disadvantaged and will start to develop ideas for new ways of showing solidarity. If you would like to get involved with livesimply but were unable to attend the meeting last Friday, please contact Kathrin (email kathrin\_forstner@hotmail.com).

The Exeter Circle meets at the Golf & Country Club on the second Monday of each month and would welcome new members. For more information contact Matthew Clark on 07875 298088.

SVP CHRISTMAS PARCELS

Every Christmas the St Vincent de Paul Society donates food parcels to the residents of homeless shelters in Exeter. Staff at the shelters tell us that this gift makes a big difference at this time of the year which can be particularly difficult. Last year we were able to deliver more than 160 parcels and this was made possible only through the generous donations of food by parishioners and by the pupils of St Nicholas School. We are looking to deliver at least that number this year and so from 11th November a box will be available at the back of the church to collect your food donations. Further information about the progress of our appeal will be made over the coming weeks. For more information please contact Amie Dunphy on 07795 461528.

Accommodation required
