*Blessed Sacrament Parish is part of the Roman Catholic

A man can have no greater love than to lay down his life for his friends.

There are two obvious themes to today's readings: St Peter summarises many of the ideas of Easter – baptism, the name of Jesus, the pouring out of the Holy Spirit; the other readings talk simply of love, both God's love for us and our love for each other. Our Gospel is taken from the great discourse at the Last Supper, and has at its centre the New Commandment that Jesus gives his disciples - the commandment of love. This love has its origins in the love of the Father, manifested in the love shown by the Son (willing to die for his friends); we, like the disciples, are called to imitate the love we see in Jesus's life and death - not because we are servants, but because we are friends.

Parish Groups on the Eucharist

In preparation for Adoremus 2018 – The Eucharistic Congress, in Liverpool in September, we will be running several parish groups. The purpose of the groups will be: to help us grow in love and understanding of the Mass, our appreciation of the presence of Christ in the Eucharist, and foster our sense of mission which springs from the Eucharist. There are 6 sessions, following a booklet by Fr Stephen Wang, and recommended by Bishop Mark. Each session includes Prayer, discussion and reflection and lasts up to an hour and a half. Sign up using the forms, indicating where the groups will be held, are in the church porch. All are welcome to participate. There are also a series of podcasts that are available to help us understand further what, we as a church, are being invited to prepare for. Podcast 2: Journey like the magi: <http://catholicnews.org.uk/Home/Special-Events/Adoremus-National-Eucharistic-Pilgrimage/Let-Us-Adore-Him-Adoremus-Podcasts/Episode-2>

Parish News now every two weeks

We have decided to try publishing the parish newsletter every two weeks rather than every Sunday. We have included a Calendar of Events which is easy to refer to and will hopefully keep you in touch with what's going on in and around the parish and diocese. Obviously this will mean that if you want an item to appear you will have to make sure it gets to the Parish Office in good time (by Wednesday afternoon). We also hope to have a notice board on the outside of the church doors so that even if the church is locked you will be able to find out the times of Masses etc.

Mass Times

Please refer to the notice board on the church door for any alterations.
