I am the living bread which has come down from heaven.

The bread that comes down from heaven is not just a bread which nourishes the body, but one which gives renewed life - be this in the form of energy and purpose (as we see in the story of Elijah) or in the form of a gift of eternal life. As Jesus continues his discourse on the Bread of Life, he faces the complaints and criticism of the crowd, who take a very short-sighted view of what he says, and affirms for them that true life, a life that will never end, is found in him, he is the one who has come from the Father, and so is the living bread which gives life. Jesus here makes an explicit link between “belief” and “eating the bread of life”: the two lead to each other, and they both bring about that which man most desires - to live for ever. The Response to the Psalm in many ways sums this up: ‘Taste and see that the Lord is good.’

Thank you to everyone who took part in our walk to share the journey of hope with refugees and migrants. We walked 69 miles and these have now been added to the CAFOD total of 85,000 miles (nearly 4 times around the world). Thank you also if you signed a campaign card, we collected 250 signed cards. There is still time to support the campaign by signing a card available in the church porch. You can use the parish as your address if you don't want to put your own details. Please leave the signed cards in the basket in the porch and they will all be sent back to CAFOD to join with thousands of others from around the country. Look out for photos on our display in the porch, on our Face book page and in the local press.

Share the Journey video

Next Sunday 19 August Twentieth Sunday in ordinary time

My flesh is real food and my blood is real drink.

Despite the fact that the theme of Mass today continues that of last Sunday, there is a new twist: in recent weeks we have been looking at the Bread of Life in a very figurative or spiritual way: today we come right down to (literally) fleshy realities: food and drink, flesh and blood. As we shall see, this is too much for the Jews to swallow, and they will desert Jesus after what he says today. How far we have come from a few weeks ago when the crowds flocked over the lake to find Jesus after the miracle of the feeding of the five thousand! Despite the complexity of the message, and the reaction of the crowd, there is an elegant simplicity about it all, which the first reading and the response to the psalm highlight: there we hear a simple invitation: "Come and eat, come and drink!" and "Taste and see." Ignorance and folly disappear when they are surrendered to the generosity of God, and we taste the eternal life that Jesus gives us in himself.
