“He will gather his chosen from the four winds.”

As always at this time of year, we begin to contemplate the end of the world - a theme that carries us over next Sunday's feast (Christ the King) and so into Advent. Such a contemplation is not gloomy or morbid: throughout the ages (and especially in the early days) Christians have been utterly positive about the coming end of all things, because we know what will happen, and in fact we earnestly desire it to come: the phrase that gives this away is in the Gospel: 'Then he will send his angels to gather his chosen from the four winds.' This gathering of God's children will be a wonderful event, when we will all be completely enfolded in that love of God that we talk so much about.

Welcome

We hope you have a happy and peaceful time with us here in Exeter. Please ask one of the Welcomers or contact the parish office if we can help in any way.

Service of Penitence and Healing

Following Bishop Mark's recent pastoral letter concerning the scandal of child abuse in the Church, he has called all the clergy of the diocese to meet and publicly ask for forgiveness and healing as a sign of our willingness to accept the sins of the past and to make reparation. The service for Devon will be celebrated on Thursday 22 November at 7.00pm at Blessed Sacrament Church. You are warmly invited to join the bishop and clergy to pray for radical change in the Church and a new beginning of trust and hope.

First Holy Communion 2019

If you would like your child to prepare for first Holy Communion you must attend a Registration meeting on Wednesday 28 November at 6.30pm at St Nicholas School EX1 3EG. Children do not have to attend this meeting. Please bring a copy of your child's certificate of baptism (if you haven't got one contact the parish where they were baptised and they will send you a copy), your contact details and £8.00 (which funds the book we will be using).

Convent Christmas Cards

We wish to thank you for saving your Christmas cards to be recycled in aid of local charities. Sister Guy-Marie had a great gift for doing this. However, as she is no longer with us, the card making has come to an end. Therefore, please, NO MORE CHRISTMAS CARDS. Thank you, once again, for your help in the past. God bless. Sisters Anna, Stella, Sheila.

Advent 2018

It will soon be the season of Advent, that time of preparation for the great celebration of the birth of Jesus at Christmas. There are many ways to make Advent a special time. Here are just a few ideas for you:

Advent Crib Blessing

Sunday, 2 December, is the first Sunday of Advent. You are invited to bring from home your crib, or a couple of crib figures, to be blessed during Mass.

Proclaiming the Word

On Saturday 8 December at 11.00am new and existing readers will meet in the church to consider the vital role of readers in proclaiming the word of God in the liturgy. Please consider taking up this role. You will be supported, trained and helped and encouraged.

A sample copy of the Catholic Children's Society's fundraising calendar Windows across the Diocese can be found in the porch. If you would like to buy one they are available from the parish office and cost £5.00. Proceeds to the society's funds.

World Day of the Poor 2018

In his message for the second World Day of the Poor, Pope Francis asks all of us, whatever our means or background, to rediscover and celebrate in a spirit of joy our capacity for togetherness.

'On this day, may all of us feel that we are in debt to the poor, because, in hands outstretched to one another, a salvific encounter can take place to strengthen our faith, inspire our charity and enable our hope to advance securely on our path towards the Lord who is to come.' Pope Francis

Loving God,

Open our ears to hear you in the cry of those living in poverty.

Open our eyes to see you in the lives of the oppressed.

Open our hearts to meet you in others and to respond with mercy and compassion.

Pour out on us your grace, so that we may grow as your faithful people, always seeking your kingdom of Truth, Justice and Peace.

Through Christ our Lord.

Amen

Livesimply Advent Fayre

Many thanks to everyone who supported the Advent Fayre – by volunteering their time, donating a cake or coming along to help raise money for charity. If you missed it, check out the stall at the back of the church after Sunday Mass where we will continue to sell Christmas gifts and other goodies. If you haven't got one already, please also take a copy of the Livesimply Guide for Advent and Christmas.

If you are interested in a more sustainable and ethical way of preparing for Christmas, you might also want to go to the 'Christmas without Cruelty Festival' at Exeter Corn Exchange on Saturday 24 November 10.00am-4.30pm. There will be stalls featuring ethical traders and organisations that promote human, animal and environmental causes. Products on sale will include fair trade clothes, local arts and crafts, cruelty-free cosmetics, and vegan cakes.

How can you get involved?

As Pope Francis asks us to examine our conscience to see if we can truly hear and respond to the cry of the poor in our world, we encourage you to get involved in one of the groups within the parish that support people in need locally and/or around the world. They are run by very dedicated people but are short of members/volunteers. Even if you don't have time to attend meetings, there are other ways in which you can support them.

CAFOD

Is the official aid agency of the Catholic Church in England and Wales. Through local Church partners, they help people directly in their own communities, and campaign for global justice, so that everyone can reach their full potential. The parish group is actively involved in fundraising and campaigning. Contact Shirley at s.larkin@exeter.ac.uk.

CWL

The members of the Catholic Women's League group play a very active role in parish life and organise and support a number of social events to raise funds for local and international charities. francesandedward@blueyonder.co.uk.

St Vincent de Paul Society (SVP)

Solidarity with migrants and refugees

Thanks to everyone who came along to Nick Gill's thought-provoking talk on immigration detention on 1 November. If you missed the talk but would like to find out more about this topic, please visit the website of the Detention Forum <https://www.detentionforum.org.uk/> and find out more about the experiences of refugees who experienced the system at <https://www.28for28.org/>. Regardless of your personal views on immigration, indefinite detention is against human dignity and we therefore invite you to learn more about the issues, spread the word and join the campaign to limit detention to 28 days <https://www.libertyhumanrights.org.uk/>

Sewing & Knitting Group
