Blessed Sacrament Parish Heavitree Exeter
26 November 2017 Feast of Christ the King. Psalter Week 2

In the lead up to the Synod on Youth, Faith and Vocational Discernment, Pope Francis said, "Every young person has something to say...something to say to priests, sisters, bishops and even the Pope." He is encouraging young people to turn to the Church and share their thoughts, cares and concerns. It is a chance for those in positions of influence to take advantage of the opportunity provided by this synod, to encourage young people to make their voice heard as we too believe they have something to say to their parish priests, to their chaplains, to the Church in general. By making the most of this conversation it will help the Church become better at accompanying young people in their vocational discernment.

YOUTH SUNDAY 2017

Today is National Youth Sunday when we pray for the young people in the Church locally and around the country.

The Church is often described as a family and like any family we have our challenges. One of the greatest is how to engage our young people with what we do, when we know very well they'd like to be doing something else! We need to find creative ways to approach and encourage them. We need to find ways of communicating which bring life and hope. And most importantly we need to look at ourselves and ask questions about the way we do things. It might mean we have to change and adapt, but if the family stays together then it's worth it.

At the 10.30am Mass today the young people who are preparing to receive the sacrament of confirmation will be enrolling as part of the preparation process. We pray that this experience will strengthen their faith and their commitment to following Jesus. We look forward to accompanying them in the coming weeks and months.

The children who will be preparing to receive Holy Communion for the first time will be starting their preparation soon. Please keep them all in your prayers.

Exeter's Young Catholic Community (16-21) is another tremendous grace in our city and parishes. Please keep this important initiative in your prayers and ask the Holy Spirit to strengthen and guide them in all they do for one another and for our community. Their next gathering will be on Wednesday 6 December 7.00-8.30pm in St Richard Reynolds Centre and we'd love to see you there! Like our Facebook page to keep updated and if you'd like more info.

Erik Renz, our parish youth worker, will be supporting the younger members of the community (11-15). We are planning the first meeting for the beginning of February. He needs our prayers.

One way of showing solidarity with the poor is for us to support campaigns and political action that focus on the needs of those experiencing poverty – whether they live close to home or in other parts of the world. Today, we have the opportunity to help address the problem of ‘energy poverty’ in different parts of the world. By signing a ‘Power to be’ campaign card, we speak up for safe, reliable, affordable and renewable energy to help families around the world to lift themselves out of poverty. On Saturday, 2 December at 10.00am we will hold the next livesimply meeting in the St Richard Reynolds Centre. This will be an opportunity to learn more about issues relating to poverty and inequality and to gather ideas on what we as a parish community can do to demonstrate that we are ‘living in solidarity with the poor’. Seasonal refreshments will be provided! All welcome! If you are not able to attend the meeting, but would like to find out more or get involved with livesimply, please contact Kathrin at: kathrin_forstner@hotmail.com

SVP CHRISTMAS PARCELS

Pope Francis: "A life that is poor in charity is devoid of true light"

Every Christmas the St Vincent de Paul Society donates food parcels to the residents of homeless shelters in Exeter at Gabriel House, Howell Road, Bethany House, Esther House and St Petrocks. Staff at the shelters tell us that this gift makes a big difference at this time of the year which can be particularly difficult. Last year we were able to deliver more than 160 parcels and this was made possible only through the generous donations of food by parishioners and by the pupils of St Nicholas School. We are looking to deliver at least that number this year. A box is available at the back of the church to collect your food donations and you have until 10 December to contribute any of the items on the list. Please take a copy of the list and add a few items to your weekly shop to donate. Please only donate 'in date' and unopened items. If you wish to give money please consider 'gift aid' which gains an extra 25% from the government if possible. Further information about the progress of our appeal will be made over the coming weeks. For more information please contact Amie Dunphy on 07795 461528.

Our Catholic Schools

Important Message from Bishop Mark

Do you support Catholic schools and the right of Catholics to send their children to them? If the answer is 'Yes' then we need you to make your voice heard. The Government is making a critical decision on whether to overturn the admissions cap which prevents Catholic schools from allowing all Catholic pupils to attend. They have acknowledged that this policy discriminates against Catholics and promised to abandon it, now we need you to tell them not to do a u-turn on their promise to Catholics. Please visit <http://catholicnews.org.uk/education-cap> or search for 'Catholic Education' in your search engine to write to the Government and urge them to drop their policy which bans new Catholic schools. Thank you for your cooperation. Bishop Mark O'Toole.

POWER TO BE

God has given us a beautiful common home. The riches of the earth, when harnessed in the right way, have the power to change lives for good by providing clean renewable sources of energy. But one in six people live without electricity. Having access to electricity means that children can study after dark, nurses can keep vaccines cold, farmers can irrigate crops, and people can drink purified water. Today we will be asking for your support for the Power to Be campaign. The campaign calls on the UK representative of the World Bank to use her influence to ensure the Bank invests in providing safe, reliable, affordable and renewable energy for poor communities. By simply signing a campaign card we can enable children everywhere to reach their full potential.

Exeter Street Pastors

Pope Francis said “I prefer a church which is bruised, hurting and dirty because it has been out on the streets....”

Exeter Street Pastors don’t usually get bruised or hurt, but occasionally get dirty while looking after people on the streets of Exeter at night. Can you spare one night a month (till 3am), to show the church in action on the streets by giving out flip-flips and water, occasional first aid, clearing up broken bottles, but mostly listening and caring? If you would like to learn more, or follow us some night as an observer, then ask the parish office to put you in contact with one of the Street Pastors in our parish. They are currently recruiting with training starting in February 2018. Taster sessions are also being held on 16 December, 21 January and 11 February. Contact them for full details on 07952 456926 or Exeter@streetpastors.org.uk

The Pope Tweets...

At the end of time, when the Lord comes to meet us, our joy will be immense. We live in anticipation of this encounter!

Pope Francis writes to young people about building a better world.

...I would also remind you of the words that Jesus once said to the disciples who asked him: "Teacher where are you staying?" He replied, "Come and see" (Jn 1:38). Jesus looks at you and invites you to go with him. Dear young people, have you noticed this look towards you? Have you heard this voice? Have you felt this urge to undertake this journey? I am sure that, despite the noise and confusion seemingly prevalent in the world, this call continues to resonate in the depths of your heart so as to open it to joy in its fullness. This will be possible to the extent that, even with professional guides, you will learn how to undertake a journey of discernment to discover God's plan in your life. Even when the journey is uncertain and you fall, God, rich in mercy, will extend his hand to pick you up.

In Krakow, at the opening of the last World Youth Day, I asked you several times: "Can we change things?" And you shouted: "yes!". That shout came from your young and youthful hearts, which do not tolerate injustice and cannot bow to a "throw-away culture" nor give in to the globalisation of indifference. Listen to the cry arising from your inner selves! Even when you feel, like the prophet Jeremiah, the inexperience of youth, God encourages you to go where He sends you: "Do not be afraid, because I am with you to deliver you" (Jer 1:8).

A better world can be built also as a result of your efforts, your desire to change and your generosity. Do not be afraid to listen to the Spirit who proposes bold choices; do not delay when your conscience asks you to take risks in following the Master. The Church also wishes to listen to your voice, your sensitivities and your faith; even your doubts and your criticism. Make your voice heard, let it resonate in communities and let it be heard by your shepherds of souls. St. Benedict urged the abbots to consult, even the young, before any important decision, because "the Lord often reveals to the younger what is best." (Rule of St. Benedict, III, 3).

Such is the case, even in the journey of this Synod. My brother bishops and I want even more to "work with you for your joy" (2 Cor 1:24). I entrust you to Mary of Nazareth, a young person like yourselves, whom God beheld lovingly, so she might take your hand and guide you to the joy of fully and generously responding to God's call with the words: "Here I am" (cf. Lk 1:38).

With paternal affection,
FRANCIS
