Blessed Sacrament Parish Heavitree Exeter
14 January 2018 Second Sunday Ordinary Time Psalter 2

COME AND SEE

What does it mean to be a follower of the Jesus? Surely to listen and hear his voice, and to go where he leads. Today, as we enter the ordinary season of the year, we begin our story of Jesus' life and ministry with the calling of the first disciples. John fulfils his ministry - pointing to the Lamb of God - and the disciples follow where he points. His word to them is simple and inviting: "Come and see." This echoes the calling of Samuel - by name, which Samuel does not understand: discipleship is about trust, which Samuel shows simply by saying "Speak, Lord; your servant is listening." The Psalm underlines this, as we (the disciples of the Lord) sing together: "Here I am, Lord ! I come to do your will." We hear his call, and we freely go to him, to listen again to the words of the Master.

The Pope's message for this year's Peace Sunday is 'Migrants and Refugees - seekers of peace': The wisdom of faith fosters a contemplative gaze that recognizes that all of us "belong to one family, migrants and the local populations that welcome them, and all have the same right to enjoy the goods of the earth...When we turn that gaze to migrants and refugees, we discover that they do not arrive empty-handed. They bring their courage, skills, energy and aspirations, as well as the treasures of their own cultures; and in this way, they enrich the lives of the nations that receive them.

Milestones for action: Offering asylum seekers, refugees, migrants and victims of human trafficking an opportunity to find the peace they seek requires a strategy combining four actions: welcoming, protecting, promoting and integrating.

“Welcoming” calls for expanding legal pathways for entry and no longer pushing migrants and displaced people towards countries where they face persecution and violence. It demands balancing our concerns about national security with concern for fundamental human rights... “Protecting” has to do with our duty to recognize and defend the inviolable dignity of those who flee real dangers in search of asylum and security, and to prevent their being exploited... “Promoting” entails supporting the integral human development of migrants and refugees. Among many possible means of doing so, I would stress the importance of ensuring access to all levels of education for children and young people... “Integrating”, lastly, means allowing refugees and migrants to participate fully in the life of the society that welcomes them, as part of a process of mutual enrichment and fruitful cooperation in service of the integral human development of the local community...

(From the message of his Holiness Pope Francis for the celebration of the 51st world day of peace, 1 January 2018)

If you would like to find out more about the Church’s role in supporting migrants and refugees and what we as a community can do to respond to Pope Francis’ plea for action, please join our next livesimply meeting on Saturday, 27 January, 10.00am in the St Richard Reynolds Centre.
