A few weeks ago we had a Gospel about humility in social life, today we hear the Lord reiterating the message, but this time in reference to our prayer lives. The two Gospels are linked by the last words today, which also appear in the other story: 'Everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, but the one who humbles himself will be exalted.' This phrase is obviously a key part of our Lord's teaching! The sin of 'self-exaltation' consists in putting others in a lower place, as the Pharisee does to the tax collector. Perhaps the most telling phrase in today's Gospel is where Jesus refers to the Pharisee saying 'this prayer to himself' rather than offering it to God! And since the Pharisee wasn't talking to God, how could he expect to be heard?

Toddler Group Relaunch

The Toddler Group will start to meet again on Monday 4 November. We are very grateful to those who have come forward to help to run this group. We are also looking for some more parishioners who can come along to make a cuppa for the mums and helpers and get to know some of the young parents in the parish. Please pass the word around and we look forward to seeing you back on Monday mornings 9.30 till 11.30am.

Parish Pastoral Council

The PPC is a consultative body to enable the parish priest, who has the ultimate responsibility for the welfare of the community, to make wise decisions about the future – and the present – of the parish. I'm asking for nominations for membership of the new council which will be formed this autumn. We need 8 elected members. If we have more than 8 nominations we will move to an election. If you would like to nominate someone please complete a nomination form, which can be found in the church porch, and return it to the Parish Office by Sunday 3 November. You must obtain the agreement of the nominee and ask them to sign the form as well as yourself. If you would like to know more about the working of the PPC, copies of the constitution are available in the Parish Office and I would be happy to talk to you about the role of the membership. Many thanks. Fr Jonathan.

Wednesday Word

'Blessed are those who hear the word of God and obey it.' Luke 11:28

'Wednesday Word' is a resource which allows us to prayerfully prepare for Mass on Sunday by reading and reflecting on the upcoming Sunday Gospel in a friendly and supportive group setting. Come along to an open group each week to ready yourself for Sunday Mass and to deepen and feed your faith. Groups will meet each week: Wednesdays from 2.00-3.00pm in the St Richard Reynolds Centre and Fridays from 7.00-8.00pm in the Sacred Heart Church. If you would like support in arranging a 'Wednesday Word' group in a different venue or at a different time, please contact Maria Quinn exeter-pastoral-assistant@prcdtr.org.uk or phone the parish office. 'Wednesday Word' resources are available to view online at www.wednesdayword.org/parish/index.htm

Baptised in faith...

We welcome into the Church Joseph Morgan, Alexander Cosway, Nolen Pal and Eve Hubbard who are to be baptised into our parish community in the coming weeks. Please offer a prayer for them, their parents and Godparents.

All Saints

On Friday 1 November we celebrate the great Feast of All Saints. As it is one of the Church's most important festivals it is a holy day of obligation. Masses on the day will be at 9.30am and 7.00pm.

"Your reward will be great in heaven."

The saints forever praise God's glory in heaven. In their lives on earth they lived out the beatitudes preached by Jesus in his Sermon on the Mount and that is why they are so happy now. We too need to model our lives on them so that where they are we may one day be. We, like them, will see God face to face.

The night which precedes the feast is the Eve of All Hallows (the hallowed or holy ones). Hallowe'en is a time when we make fun of death as we believe it has no hold over us. Jesus died for us and rose again to the new life of heaven, therefore as Christians we have no fear of death. This is why we can dress up and mock it.

All Souls

The day following the feast of All Saints is the Commemoration of all the Faithful Departed. This is a special day of prayer for all our loved ones who have died. By praying for them we hope to assure them a place in heaven alongside all the saints we celebrated the previous day. Mass on Saturday 2 November will be at 9.30am.

Blessing of graves

Praying for the dead is one of the most important things we do as Christians. Join us at Exeter Higher Cemetery (the Hamlin Lane entrance) on Saturday 2 November at 11.00am to visit the graves of our loved ones. Even if they are buried far away come and join in this act of remembrance. This will be followed by refreshments in the St Richard Reynolds Centre.

Plymouth Clergy Requiem

Please come and pray for the repose of the souls of those men who served the diocese and our parishes for so many years and who have died on Thursday 7 November at 12.00 noon at Plymouth Cathedral Cecil Street PL1 5HW. May they rest in peace.

Saying Goodbye

On the 13 November at 7.00pm in St Andrew's Minster, Plymouth, the Mariposa Trust is holding one of its Saying Goodbye services. We know that many as 1 in 4 women suffer miscarriage and baby loss. So who is the service for? Anyone who has either personally lost a baby at any stage of pregnancy, at birth or in early years, or who has been affected by a family members or friends loss. Whether the loss was recent or 80 years ago, everyone is welcome to attend. We have also extended the services, and gladly welcome anyone who is grieving the fact that they haven't had children. This may be due to circumstance, infertility or for other reasons - but all are welcome. Babies and children are also invited to come with their family, as the Saying Goodbye service is truly a family event for all. To read more on the charity, please see the Saying Goodbye website, www.sayinggoodbye.org. We also have FREE leaflets and resources available for those who would like more information or to be able to offer more support to those touched by baby loss.

Into your hands, Lord...

Please pray for the repose of the soul of Richard Hope who has died. A Funeral Mass will be celebrated on Thursday 31 October at 11.00am. Requiescat in Pace.

Stronghold Praise & Worship

The next meeting of the Prayer Group supported by Stronghold is on Thursday 28 November at 7.00pm. All welcome.

Livesimply

This is a time of the year when there are a lot of opportunities to live simply, wear last year's winter clothes, have an advent penance ready, support any initiative to improve life for those less fortunate than ourselves, spend more time in prayer.

A meeting of the parish to further the goals and objectives in 2020 will be held on Saturday 2 November at 2.00pm. If you have any ideas for future livesimply projects please come along or email them to livesimplyexeter@gmail.com

The Repair Café will also be open that afternoon. Contact Coral 07745922636 or Frances 01392 209542 or just come along. There will also be a sale of clothes.

Advent wreath workshop. In the St Richard Reynolds Centre on Saturday 30 November 2019 after the morning Mass. The aim is to use as many natural resources as possible. If you could let Coral 07745922636 know if you would like to join us. You should bring the following with you: 3 purple, 1 pink and 1 white candle, and scissors/secateurs, string, greenery from garden and dried pinecones, dried seeds, acorns, ribbon and perhaps small Christmas decorations.

Sewing Group Meets every Monday. The group is asking for donations of fabric suitable for making boys shorts. Dark colours and cotton fabric would be preferred and really appreciated.
