Parishes of Blessed Sacrament, Sacred Heart and Holy Cross

1 October 2023 Twenty Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time. Year A. Psalter Week2

He thought better of it and went

Time and again, Jesus tells us that being in the right relationship with God is characterised by following the will of the Father. In the Gospel, it is the first son who says, 'I will not go' when asked by his father to work in the vineyard, who eventually does his father's will. The second son says he will go but doesn't. This call by the father to work in the vineyard is God's call to repentance, to changing our lives and conforming ourselves to His will. We can easily fall into the trap of thinking that simply because we are Christians, we are doing the will of the Father. But Jesus warns us that it is not those who say, 'Lord, Lord', who will enter the kingdom but those who do the will of the Father. But what is the will of the Father? We hear from St Paul, 'In your minds you must be the same as Christ Jesus: His state was divine, yet he did not cling to his equality with God but emptied himself.' Jesus lived his life in total acceptance of the Father's will, humbling himself to be of service to us who are so in need of His love. Likewise, we Christians do the will of the Father when we turn away from our own self-interest and serve Him by serving each other. Fr Albert

EXETER NEWS & EVENTS

Exeter Deanery Liturgy & Music Day

Saturday 14 October 10.15am – 6.00pm

Blessed Sacrament Church

Are you involved in, or interested in liturgy and music within your parish? Do you want to find out more about using music to enhance the liturgy?

We are privileged to welcome Jo Boyce and her friends to Blessed Sacrament Church in Exeter for a day of uplifting teaching, music and worship. Jo will be helping us to understand how music can be used to enhance liturgy. By sharing teaching and techniques she will deepen our formation, knowledge and skills to use within our parish settings.

The day will start at 10.15am with tea and coffee (provided) in the St Richard Reynolds Centre at Blessed Sacrament, and finish with the celebration of Mass in the church at 6.00pm. Please bring a packed lunch. There is plenty of parking on site. Bring your voice, an instrument if you play one, and most importantly, your desire and enthusiasm for praising God in the liturgy of the Church.

To let us know to expect you please complete the form by clicking this link.

Message from Fiona Hutchings

Dear parishioners,

Now that I have absorbed the reality of Father Harry's death, I just wanted to extend a huge thanks to the many of you who have supported by either visiting Father Harry or giving me support especially over the six months that he was in residential care. His family and I are very appreciative. Thank you especially to Topsham parishioners who helped him continue in his ministry for as long as possible through their compassion and understanding of his needs. Saying Mass was so important for him. Alzheimer's is a cruel disease and Father Harry accepted it and never, ever lost his love of people and the joy he got from interacting with them. He died incredibly peacefully on Friday evening having been anointed earlier in the week. It was a real blessing for me that I was with him when he died. I know he would want smiles and happy stories as his legacy. God bless you. Fiona

Funeral arrangements for Mgr Harry Doyle

Thursday 12 October Reception into Sacred Heart Church at 6.00pm followed by Mass at 7.00pm.

Friday 13 October Requiem Mass at 2.00pm followed by refreshments over the road at the White Hart Hotel.

Fr Harry's body will be taken to Ireland for burial.

Please let Sacred Heart office know if you intend to attend the Requiem Mass by phoning 01392 642388 or emailing exeter-sacredheart@prcdtr.org.uk

Please keep Harry, his family, and all those who mourn him in your prayers.

We welcome Sam Mapletoft to Sacred Heart Parish

"My name is Sam Mapletoft, and I shall be joining the Catholic Exeter community until June 2024 in a year of discernment and preparation for the priesthood. I have received a very warm welcome from the community so far, and I look forward to meeting more of you over the coming weeks. I am not new to Exeter - I studied at the University here for 4 years, but now I am taking on a new challenge and will be working alongside Fr Petroc and Fr Albert. Please do say hello and introduce yourselves, and please keep me in your prayers!"

Exeter University Catholic Chaplaincy

If you are studying at the University of Exeter this year, we invite you to come to our Catholic Chaplaincy at Boniface House, Glenthorne Road, between Moberly and Birks Grange Village halls of residence. More details & directions here: found here

We have a very lively and faith-filled community. Exeter Catholic Society meets weekly at the Catholic Chaplaincy for a range of activities throughout the year, from various socials to talks and society trips, in a friendly environment where students can grow in faith while having fun and making new friends.

Masses at our Catholic Chaplaincy are celebrated on Sundays at 11.30am (followed by a free lunch), Tuesdays at 12.00pm (followed by free lunch) and Thursdays at 5.00pm.

For further information on Exeter CathSoc and the events at the Catholic Chaplaincy please go to our Facebook page at @ExeterUniCatholicSociety or get in touch with the Chaplaincy Assistant, Maria Giannone, at m.g.giannone@exeter.ac.uk. We look forward to meeting you!

CAFOD Fast Day – 6 October

Last year, when flooding hit Pakistan, the CAFOD team travelled hundreds of miles to treat people who needed medical help in the aftermath of the disaster. That is how they met Meera who gave birth just as her home was destroyed by flood. When Dr. Nasha and her team arrived in Meera's village, Meera hurried to bring her children to the clinic and got them the life-saving medicines and treatments they needed.

YOUR gift to CAFOD will mean families like Meera can get help from doctors and other local experts when they need it most. With extreme disasters like flooding happening more and more, the support of monthly gifts is needed more than ever. CAFOD's Family Fast Day is on Friday 6 October, a day we can pray, give and eat simply in solidarity with our global family.

Donate to CAFOD so that more families can get the expert help they need. Envelopes will be available in church which can be brought back for the collection on Sunday 8 October or you can give online at cafod.org.uk You can also donate using this QR code. Hear Dr Nasha and Meera's inspiring stories by clicking here

There will be a Soup Lunch on Friday 6 October at Noon in the Sacred Heart Parish Lower Room to raise funds for those living in poverty. A charge of at least £2 will be asked from those attending.

Sacred Heart Book Club

The next meeting of the Sacred Heart Church Book Club will be on Thursday 19 October at 7.30pm, after evening Mass. The book that we will be discussing is "The Garden of Evening Mists" by Tan Twan Eng. If you would like to join us please contact Phil Smallwood pmsmallwood@hotmail.com, or Martin Overy mkovery@gmail.com, or just turn up on the day!

St Nick's News

We hope parishioners had a lovely Summer. The new term at St Nicholas has started well. We have welcomed many new families to our school community and the children have settled into their new classes with new teachers and friends.

We are holding Open Days for Reception 2024 entry where prospective parents can see the school, meet our staff and obtain information about St Nicholas School. These are 9.30am on the 8 November, 9.30am on the 9 November and 6.00pm on the 14 November. If you would like to attend please complete this form Which you can use to send electronically. Or you can contact Mrs Brocksom on abrocksom@stnics.uk to receive the booking information.

If you would like to find out more about our Nursery, please also contact Mrs Brocksom. We offer 15 and 30 hours funding for 3 and 4 year olds and wrap around care. We would be happy to arrange tours for parents wishing to view the setting. Please also see our website

WIDER NEWS & EVENTS

Prisoners Week 8 – 14 October

PACT – the Prison Advice and Care Trust - is a national charity that supports prisoners, people with convictions, and their children and families. They provide caring and life changing services at every stage of the criminal justice process: in court, in prison, on release, and in the community.

Their vision is of a society that understands justice as a process of restoration and healing, that uses prisons sparingly and as places of learning and rehabilitation, and that values the innate dignity and worth of every human being. They work for the common good of Society, taking a public health-based approach and work at the intersection of criminal justice, child and family welfare, mental health, wellbeing provision and health and social care. They are a diverse, inclusive, modern, and collaborative charity.

There will be talks at all Masses at Blessed Sacrament on Sunday 15 October and a retiring collection taken that day or follow this link to make a donation or use the QR code on the leaflet in the church porch. Gift aid envelopes are also available in the church porch.

The Prisons Week Prayer

Lord, you offer freedom to all people. We pray for those in prison. Break the bonds of fear and isolation that exist. Support with your love prisoners and their families and friends, prison staff and all who care. Heal those who have been wounded by the actions of others, especially the victims of crime. Help us to forgive one another, to act justly, love mercy and walk humbly together with Christ in his strength and in his Spirit, now and every day. Amen

An Invitation for Vocations to Priesthood

STOP – please read and reflect. An Invitation for Vocations to Priesthood.

A Day of Reflection for men on Saturday 14 October from 10.00am to 4.00pm at Exeter University Chaplaincy, Boniface House, Glenthorne Road, Exeter EX4 4QU.

How can you respond to this? If this is not for you perhaps you are the one who God has called to give a man in your parish a nudge and tell him ‘God is calling you’; or can you find time to pray for: those who are called to attend but are not responding; for those who will attend; for those involved in Vocations in our Diocese; for those already in formation.

The day will include Mass; a time of Adoration; a short conference; an opportunity for confession and one to one talks with serving priests from our diocese; sharing food together (this will be provided – please let us know of special dietary requirements). Under 18s are welcome to attend with parents’ permission.

For further information and to register for the event, please contact Fr Jacek Kostuch on Jacek.Kostuch@prcdtr.org.uk or speak to your parish priest by 9 October at the latest and ask him to make contact on your behalf. Arrangements can be made to collect you from Exeter Railway Station and returned after, if required.

Exeter Foodbank News

We are not panicking. No. Not us. We know that there are 89 days until Christmas. We also know that we need about 300 gift sets to give to Care Experienced young people across Devon in a project that we are doing with the wonderful people at Devon County Council. Yes that said THREE HUNDRED! But, of course, we are not panicking.

If you would like to buy a gift for a young person who is probably aged from about 18-25, who is taking their first steps in independent living and has experience of the Care System. We would be delighted if you would support us in this.

Packing day is mid-November. Read our wish list here.

We know that some people like to purchase items from local stores rather than online. If that's you, and you would like to donate something, please look at the link to see the items we need and then message, and we could let you know where to drop items off. We are also going to be running our #efbchristmasinabag project and we still need our normal food items! It is going to be a busy time as there are a lot of people in genuine need out there.

Thank you, Exeter. We know that you are with us in this.

This month's priority items required: Tins of meat, tins of vegetables, small jars of coffee, small boxes of tea bags, custard / rice pudding, tinned fruit, tinned vegetarian meals, jams and spreads, squash, biscuits, noodle & pasta snacks, sugar, toiletries (shower gel, toothpaste, deodorant, shampoo etc). Collection points are located at Sacred Heart & Blessed Sacrament churches, and in local supermarkets.

Second Reading Philippians 4:6-9

The God of peace will be with you.

Gospel Matthew 21:33-43

He will lease the vineyard to other tenants.

The Holy Guardian Angels 2 October

The doctrine that every individual soul has a guardian angel has never been defined by the Church and so is not an article of faith, but is the “mind of the Church”, as expressed particularly by St Jerome and St Basil. It is present in both the Old and New Testaments. As Jesus says, See that you never despise any of these little ones, for I tell you that their angels in heaven always gaze on the face of my Father in heaven. Thus even little children have guardian angels, and these angels remain in the presence of God even as they fulfil their mission on earth.

Anciently, all angels were celebrated together on the feast of St Michael. A separate feast of the Guardian Angels began in Valencia in 1411. At the reform of the Breviary in the 16th century it was included among the local feasts, and it was raised to the status of a feast in the General Calendar in 1608, placed on the first free day after the feast of Saints Michael, Gabriel and Raphael.

One of the benefits of this feast is that it reminds us that God cares for us each, individually. We all know this in theory, but it is easy – in times of depression or temptation – to convince ourselves that we are too small to matter, for good or ill.

Let us use this feast to remind ourselves that each of us has an angel of our very own looking after us; and also to pray to God for our own Guardian Angel. What a bore and a burden to them some of us are. May we one day be a cause of rejoicing for them also. The Guardian Angel by Pietro da Cortona

Our Lady of the Rosary 7 October

The feast of the Holy Rosary was instituted by Pope Pius V to celebrate the anniversary of the defeat of the Turkish fleet at the battle of Lepanto on the first Sunday in October 1571, which ended the threat of Muslim domination of the Mediterranean and was ascribed in part to the prayers and processions of the Rosary confraternity in Rome. Later the feast was moved to the fixed date of 7 October.
